For Immediate Release:

Free Theater At Neighborhood Picnic

All-of-us Express Children's Theatre is presenting 45 minutes full of fun, fantastic, fabulous fables at the Colonial Village Neighborhood Association Annual Picnic.

Each year the people in the Colonial Village district gather for good food, fun, talk and information. This year they have added a special treat for the whole family – a performance of “Aesop's Favorite Fables” done by the Storybook Story Theatre touring group from All-of-us Express Children's Theatre.

Storybook Story Theatre is a talented troupe of touring storytellers ranging in age from 10 to 18. As with all activities at All-of-us Express Children's Theater, the young people in the troupe painted their own set and gathered their own costumes. Each performer in the troupe takes on many different roles creating a kaleidoscope of characters.

Each year the troupe puts together a different performance. This year they are offering their collection of fables to all those who want their funnybones tickled. “Aesop's Favorite Fables” is a fun filled collection of some of Aesop's best known fables – and some that are not so well known. The show includes such all time favorites as “The Grasshopper and the Ants”, “The Lion and the Mouse” and the “Tortoise and the Hare”.

The Colonial Village Neighborhood Association Annual Picnic will begin at 6:00 pm on Tuesday, August 1 at Elmhurst Elementary School (corner of Pattengill and Gordon Ave. in Lansing). The performance of “Aesop's Favorite Fables” will happen at 6:30 pm.
